Executive Summary

This document follows up on D1.2 UAB Management Report (Intermediate 1), which provides an overview of the composition of the User Advisory Board set up for the IN-PREP project, the role envisioned for its members in project activities as well as the actions performed in the first year of the project for implementing this plan. The document at hand reports on the effort to engage UAB members in the tasks carried out in the second project year. This constitutes a revised version of the original Year 2 report, incorporating the comments from the second year review meeting. The timing of this delivery was taken as an opportunity to report on activities carried out up to M32.
